- (e) get its accounts annually audited in the prescribed manner; and
- (f) by notification in the official Gazette make regulations to regulate its procedure.

⁴⁶ Words added by the Finance Act, 2008 Gaz. of Pak., Extra, Pt. I, June 27, 2008.

11-D. Recovery of rent.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936), where any rent or arrears of rent are due from any person under the scheme made under section 11-C, they may be recovered-

- (a) by deduction by his employer from his wages, if the Board or any person authorised by it in this behalf directs the employer so to do; or
- (b) as arrears of land revenue or as a public demand if, upon the application of the Board or any person authorised by it in this behalf, a Magistrate so directs.

Explanation.-- In this section and section 11-E, 'Magistrate' means a Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction in the area where the house for which the rent or arrears of rent are due or from which eviction is to be effected is located.

(2) An employer making any deduction under sub-section (1), shall, within seven days from the date on which he makes the deduction, pay the entire amount so deducted to the Board entitled to receive it, and the payment so made, to the extent of the amount so paid, shall constitute a valid discharge of the liability of the employer to the person from whose wages the amount is deducted.

(3) If an employer, upon being directed by a Board or a person authorised by it to make a deduction from wages under this section, fails without lawful excuse to comply with the direction within the time specified therein he shall personally be liable to pay the amount so required to be deducted, without prejudice to the liability of the person from whom that money is due.

11-E. Eviction.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, including the West Pakistan Urban Rent Restriction Ordinance, 1959 (West Pakistan Ordinance No. VI of 1959), and the Karachi Rent Restriction Act, 1953 (VIII of 1953), a worker occupying a house constructed with the money allocated from the Fund, who is directed by a Board or an officer authorised by it in this behalf, by an order in writing to vacate the house, shall vacate such house within a period of two months from the date of service of the order on him.

(2) If such a worker fails to vacate such house within such period, the Board or the officer authorised by it in this behalf may lodge a complaint with a Magistrate.

(3) The Magistrate on hearing the parties may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, summarily decide the case and may pass an order of eviction giving the worker a reasonable time to vacate the house.

(4) When a Magistrate passes an order for the eviction of worker, he may, in such order, also direct a police officer to evict such worker and any other person occupying through such worker the house in respect of which the order of eviction is made, if the worker or such other person fails to vacate the house within the time allowed under sub-section (3).

(5) A police officer acting under an order of the Magistrate under clause (4) shall notify the occupants of the premises in question the contents of the Magistrate's order and his intention to enter such house, allow at least two hours time to the occupants thereof to vacate it and give all reasonable facilities to the children and female occupants, if any, to withdraw therefrom before applying any force for taking over the possession of such house.

(6) Where a worker occupying such a house dies, the procedure prescribed in this section shall mutatis mutandis and so far as applicable, apply for evicting any person who was occupying the house through such worker and continues to remain in occupation thereof after his death:

Provided that, where such person is the widow of the deceased worker, she shall not be evicted before the expiry of nine months following the death of the worker.

11-F. Finality of order.— An order passed by a Magistrate under section 11-D or section 11-E shall be final and no Court or authority shall entertain any plea as to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate or as to the legality or propriety of the order or allow such an order to be called in question in any manner whatsoever.]

CHAPTER IV MISCELLANEOUS

12. Delegation of powers.— The Governing Body may direct in writing that all or any of its powers and functions under clauses (e) and (f) of section 10 may, subject to such limitations, restrictions or conditions, if any, as may be imposed by it from time to time, be also exercised or performed by the Secretary.
